and employees; as well as their agents, sub-agents and their respective employees.

Service commencement

1.6 Your service commences on the following dates:

- (a) if you have an ADSL or Cable service and you choose professional installation, the date on which we install the broadband transmission facilities on your premises;

Broadband transmission facilities has the meaning given to it in clause 11 of this Part.

- (b) if you have a Cable or Wireless Broadband service and you choose to self-install, the earlier of:

- (i) the date you (or, if you are a group administrator, your group member) first use your service;
- (ii) 21 days after we notify you that your service has been activated (if you or your group member already have the equipment); or

Satellite broadband transmission facilities has the meaning given to it in clause 2 of Part E of the BigPond service section.

2 Acceptable use policy

Introduction

- 2.1 You must comply with this acceptable use policy when you use your service.
- 2.2 A reference to "you" in this acceptable use policy includes a reference to your officers, employees, contractors, agents and anyone else (other than us or our representatives) who uses the service. If you are a group administrator, it also includes your group members.
- 2.3 A reference to "us" in this acceptable use policy includes a reference to Telstra or our related bodies corporate which provide the relevant service.

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

What you cannot use the service for

- 2.4 You must not use the service, attempt to use the service or allow the service to be used in any way:

Your breach of Our Customer Terms or law

- (a) which causes you to breach any applicable part of Our Customer Terms, or to breach a law (including a foreign law), a code or an instrument which governs your conduct;

Our breach of law

- (b) which could cause us to breach, or be involved in a breach of law (including infringement of copyright and a foreign law), a code or an instrument which governs our conduct;

For more information on copyright infringement see the "Copyright Compliance" section of the BigPond website.

Our liability to third parties

- (c) which could result in us incurring a liability to any person;

Interference

- (d) which could interfere with the service, our networks or equipment or those of another person, or the provision by us of services to you or another person;

Examples of these types of activities are set out on our website at www.bigpond.com

To avoid doubt, your ordinary use of the service will not be a breach of this clause. For example, a high level of usage on a BigPond plan with no excess usage fees or unlimited usage plan will not, by itself, be a breach of this clause.

Our reputation or brand

- (e) to engage in conduct or activities that we consider could adversely affect or prejudice the BigPond reputation or brand; or

Usage limits

- (f) which attempts to manipulate or bypass any limitations on the service by any means.

Remedial Action

- 2.5 If you breach this acceptable use policy, we may take remedial action. We may also take remedial action if the law or a regulator or other authority requires us to do so.

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

- 2.6 The types of remedial action which we may take include:
- (a) for a serious breach, immediately terminating or suspending your service;
 - (b) for a non-serious breach where the consequences are serious, immediately terminating or suspending your service;
 - (c) for all other breaches, immediately suspending your service and then terminating the service if you do not remedy the breach;
 - (d) if your service involves us publishing, hosting or making available material or content provided or selected by you, removing or disabling access to that material or content;
 - (e) giving you a notice to stop the activities or conduct, or to take steps to remedy your breach;
 - (f) giving you a warning that any further repetition of the activity or conduct will result in us immediately terminating or suspending your service; and
 - (g) reporting of the activities or conduct to relevant authorities.
- 2.7 We will try to tell you before we terminate or suspend your service if it is reasonably possible for us to do so.

3 Your obligations

- 3.1 You must ensure your personal computer (or “PC”) meets the requirements set out on our website.
- See <http://my.bigpond.com/internetplans/broadband/adsl/sysreq/> for ADSL connections, <http://my.bigpond.com/internetplans/broadband/cable/sysreq/> for Cable connections, <http://my.bigpond.com/internetplans/broadband/wireless/sysreq/> for Wireless Broadband connections, <http://www.bigpond.com/internetplans/broadband/satellite/sysreq/> for Satellite customers.
- 3.2 You must pay all fees and charges associated with your (and any of your group members') use of the service, in accordance with clause 5.
- 3.3 You must:
- (a) keep your account information, password, data and equipment secure;
 - (b) regularly check the default email address that we have allocated to you for messages about your service;
 - (c) if you have a satellite service, ensure that any additional users comply with the acceptable use policy, as set out in section 2 of this Part;

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

- (d) if you have a Cable, ADSL, Dial-Up or Wireless Broadband service, ensure that any equipment provided by you does not damage the service or any of our facilities that we use to provide the service; and
- (e) comply with our reasonable directions that are necessary for us to provide the service to you.

4 Limits of the service

- 4.1 Subject to clause 4.2 below, there are certain things that, despite our best efforts, we cannot guarantee or provide in relation to the service. These things include those set out in this clause 4. These terms do not affect your rights under consumer protection laws.
- 4.2 We will use due care and skill in providing your service in accordance with Our Customer Terms. There may also be other non-excludable statutory guarantees, implied conditions or warranties under consumer protection laws (such as the Competition & Consumer Act 2010 and State and Territory Fair Trading Acts) that cannot be excluded which may apply to goods or services we supply to consumers, including that services be fit for their purpose. However, given the nature of telecommunications systems, we cannot promise that your service will be continuous, accessible at all times or fault free.
- 4.3 The service is not available if you are a Telstra wholesale customer or an end user of a Telstra wholesale customer.
- 4.4 Where you provide your own wireless modem, router or similar device, you are responsible for any loss caused by an unauthorised interception of your service.
- 4.5 Subject to the Australian Consumer Law provisions in this BigPond service section of Our Customer Terms, we are not responsible for any loss caused by equipment provided by someone other than us.
- 4.6 We may not be able to provide detailed information about your usage (or any of your group members' usage) of the service (for example, information about what sites were visited and when).
- 4.7 We may monitor use of the service to see whether you (or any of your group members) are complying with the acceptable use policy as set out in section 2 of this Part or to investigate a breach (or suspected breach) of that policy. However, we are not under any obligation to enforce the acceptable use policy or any other policy that applies to anyone using services that we provide to them.

5 Charges for your service

- 5.1 If you signed up for your service:

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

- (a) on or after 13 December 2007 or changed your plan on or after this date, the charges for your plan are set out in the relevant Part of this BigPond service section (unless you are changing back to your original Program plan during your Program term in which case the charges will be as set out in your original BigPond Member agreement that you accepted when you signed up for your Program service). You must pay the charges for your selected plan (including any charges associated with your group members' use of the service), starting from the date your service commences; or

 - (a) if you do not disconnect your service when you leave your premises, you have to pay for any use of the service by later occupants or others; and
 - (b) any person who uses your service, or allows someone else to use it, after you have vacated your premises, is jointly and individually liable with you for any charges relating to that use.
- 5.3 If you have an ADSL service, you must also pay all charges associated with your standard Telstra basic telephone service.

- 5.5 We process and issue invoices within 30 days of the end of each billing period.
- 5.6 You may choose to be billed for the service by:
 - (a) nominating a Telstra account on which we will include charges for the service; or
 - (b) giving us your credit card details for us to debit charges for the service, if your plan permits payment via this method; or
 - (c) other billing methods that we may make available from time-to-time.
- 5.7 If you use your credit card to pay for your service, we may:
 - (a) bill all charges to your credit card on a monthly basis from the date that your service commences;

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

- (b) disclose your credit card details to, and obtain information from, any financial institution or credit card issuer to verify the credit card details;
 - (c) take steps to verify that there is sufficient credit on your credit card account to meet likely fees; and
 - (d) charge any cancellation fee payable under the applicable parts of Our Customer Terms to your credit card.
- 5.8 If you use your credit card to pay for your service, we may also charge you a payment processing fee. Refer to your bill for the amount of the fee.
- 5.9 If you use a Telstra account to pay for your service:
- (a) we will bill all charges payable for your service to your Telstra account number (including any cancellation fees); and
 - (b) if you choose to add the charges for your service to a Telstra Single Bill:
 - (iv) the Telstra Single Bill terms and conditions at Section 6 of the General Terms found at <http://www.telstra.com.au/customer-terms/home-family/index.htm> will apply;
 - (v) you must be the owner of the fixed line Telstra service to which the Telstra Single Bill relates; and
 - (vi) if that fixed line Telstra service is disconnected, we may suspend and/or terminate your service.
- 5.10 You may obtain a detailed statement of all fees incurred in the last 3 billing periods by visiting My BigPond.
- 5.11 If you do not pay a bill by its due date, we may charge you an administrative fee of:
- (a) $5.00 if the amount outstanding on your bill after the due date is $65.00 or more but less than $130.00;
 - (b) $11.00 if the amount outstanding on your bill is $130.00 or more but less than $200.00; or
 - (c) $15.00 if the amount outstanding on your bill is $200.00 or more.

No administrative fee is charged if the amount outstanding on your bill after the due date is less than $65.00.

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

- 5.12 We can also suspend or cancel your service provided we comply with our rights to cancel or suspend your service set out in our rights to cancel or suspend your service under clauses 7.7, 7.8 and 7.9.
- 5.13 If you pay a bill by cheque and the cheque is dishonoured, you must also pay us a fee of $15.00. If you pay a bill by direct debit and there are insufficient funds in the account, you must also pay us a fee of $10.00. These fees do not attract GST.

Adjustments

- 5.14 We can pay you amounts we owe you by deducting them from amounts you owe us.
- 5.15 If we require you to pay any charges in advance (eg, monthly access fees) and they are varied or the service is cancelled, we will refund you any overpayment and you will have to pay us any underpayment.
- 5.16 If we include a credit or amount on your account that you were not entitled to receive (or we give you more than you were entitled to receive), we can recover the over-credit or over-payment from you by:
- (a) including a debit on your bill;
 - (b) if your service has been terminated, including a debit on a bill for any other service we provide to you; or
 - (c) if you no longer have any billing relationship with us, by taking other reasonable steps.

Security

- 5.17 At any time, we can require you to provide some form of security (eg, a security deposit, a charge or bank guarantee) or pay some or all of the charges for your service in advance. We will only do so if we have reasonable concerns about your credit worthiness or have reasonable grounds for believing that we may not be paid for the service. In the case of new services, we can refuse to provide you the services until we receive the security. In the case of existing services, if you do not provide the security within 14 days of our request, we can restrict, suspend or cancel the service – this is in addition to any other rights that we may have.
- 5.18 If you cancel all your services, we will return the security deposit or advance payment to you less any outstanding charges within a reasonable time.
- 5.19 Our acceptance of any form of security or advance payment does not affect any other terms of Our Customer Terms.

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

Other work we do for you – Fee-for-service charges

- 5.20 We may perform additional connections, adds, moves or changes, maintenance and repair work (including work beyond the first socket) for you which is not provided as part of your BigPond service. The charges for these services vary depending on the nature of the services provided and when they are completed. We will tell you about these charges before you agree to proceed with a service request. Such charges are fee-for-service charges, as set out in the Fee-for-Service (Other work we do for you) section of Our Customer Terms - for home and family customers click here; business and government customers click here.

6 Changing your plan

Terms that apply until 2 August 2019

- 6.1 You can change to a higher or lower plan using My BigPond, which is available at <http://www.bigpond.com/mybigpond>, or by calling 13 POND (13 7663).
- 6.2 Changing your plan will not usually affect your minimum term.
- 6.3 If you have a Satellite service, you acknowledge that in relation to a plan change in accordance with clause 6.1:
- (a) it may take us up to 30 hours to effect the change;
 - (b) your plan at the time your request is made will continue to apply until we effect the change;
 - (c) the date on which we effect the change will be your new billing date (you can confirm your billing date at any time by going to the "My BigPond" link at <http://www.bigpond.com/myaccount/broadband>); and
 - (d) your next bill will separately itemise the charges for the service before and after the change.

Terms that apply on and from 2 August 2019

- 6.4 From 2 August 2019, you will no longer be able to change within your current plan range if you have a BigPond service. To change plans, you will need to move to one of our available current in-market plans.

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

7 Termination

Cooling-off period

7.1 Some legislation gives customers time to cancel an agreement for goods or services in specified circumstances (“Cooling-Off Period”). If you are entitled to a Cooling-Off Period in respect of your service or equipment we provide to you for use with your service:

- (a) you may cancel your service at any time within the Cooling-Off Period by telling us; and
- (b) we may choose not to provide the service or the equipment to you until the end of the Cooling-Off Period.

Your right to terminate your service

7.2 You may terminate your service at any time by calling us on 13 POND (13 7663).

7.3 However, subject to clause 7.1, if you terminate your service after the end of any Cooling-Off Period and before the end of any applicable minimum term, you must pay us the cancellation fee set out in the charges section for your plan.

7.4 You may also terminate the service if:

- (a) we are in serious breach of the applicable parts of Our Customer Terms; and

For example, we will be in serious breach if we breach our obligation to use reasonable care and skill in providing the service or our obligations under clause 4.2.
- (b) you have notified us in writing of our breach and we have failed to remedy the breach within 30 days of your notice (if the breach can be remedied). If the breach is something which cannot be remedied, you may immediately terminate your service with notice to us.

7.5 If you terminate the service under clause 7.4 during your minimum term:

- (a) you will not have to pay us the cancellation fee set out in the charges section for your plan; or
- (b) if you are a Satellite customer and you wish to purchase the Satellite broadband transmission facilities that we have provided to you under clause 5 of Part E of the BigPond service section, you must pay us the cancellation fee set out in the charges section for your plan. The cancellation fee is the only charge you need to pay for this purchase.

Your obligation to pay a cancellation fee does not limit or affect the rights you may have under the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth) in relation to the equipment or the service.

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

7.6 If you have a Satellite service:

- (a) you will not have to pay a cancellation fee if we ask you to do one of the following and you do as we ask:
 - (vii) return the satellite broadband transmission facilities (that we have provided to you under clause 5 of Part E of the BigPond service section) to us in good working order; or
 - (viii) permit us or our authorised representatives to enter into your premises to repossess the satellite broadband transmission facilities that are in good working order; and
- (b) if your service is terminated under clauses 7.3 or 7.7 and we later agree to reinstate the service, you must pay any fees relating to the installation of the satellite broadband transmission facilities, if any.

Our right to terminate or suspend your service

7.7 We may terminate your service if:

- (a) you are in serious breach of Our Customer Terms; and

You will be in serious breach if you breach your obligation to pay our charges for the service, breach the acceptable use policy as set out in section 2 of this Part (if applicable) or breach clauses 3.3(a), 3.3(c), 3.3(d), 11.13, 14.3 or 21.2 of this Part, clause 2.9 or 5.3 of Part E of the BigPond service section.

You will also be in serious breach if you use your service in a way which we reasonably believe is fraudulent.

- (b) we have written to you about your breach and you do not remedy it within 30 days (if the breach can be remedied). If the breach is something which cannot be remedied, we may immediately terminate your service by telling you.

Breaches that cannot be remedied are: engaging in conduct that breaches the acceptable use policy as set out in section 2 of this Part (except for clause 2.4(d)) or breaching clauses 3.3(a), 3.3(c), 3.3(d), 11.13, 14.3 or 21.2 of this Part, clause 2.9 or 5.3 of Part E of the BigPond service section

We can also cancel, suspend or restrict your service if you die, by providing as much warning as we reasonably can to the appropriate person. We will not charge you any applicable cancellation fee if we cancel your service for this reason.

7.8 We can also cancel, suspend or restrict your service by telling you with as much warning as we reasonably can if:

- (a) you become bankrupt or insolvent or appear likely to do so; or
- (b) we reasonably consider that you pose an unacceptably high credit risk to us.

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

We consider that you pose an unacceptably high credit risk to us when there is some doubt as to your ability to pay by the due date based on factors such as:

- previous payment history and payment behaviour (eg late payments, dishonoured payments or failure to pay);
- any previous advice from you about a potential inability or unwillingness to pay;
- your usage is inconsistently high when compared with previous usage patterns; or
- your response where we have told you of this unusually high usage.

7.9 If we terminate your service under clause 7.7, 7.8 or 7.9 during your minimum term, you must pay us the cancellation fee set out in the charges section for your plan.

7.10 We may suspend your service during the 30 day period before we terminate your service under clause 7.7, 7.8 or 7.9. If we do this, we will refund any monthly fees (pro-rated if necessary) that you paid during the suspension.

7.11 We may terminate your service before the end of your minimum term if we:

- (a) get your consent;
- (b) take reasonable steps to appropriately offset the effect of the cancellation on you (for example by providing a credit or a rebate to you);
- (c) transfer you to a reasonably comparable service; or
- (d) transfer you to an alternative service and take reasonable steps to offset any material detrimental impacts of the transfer caused by the material differences between your service and the alternative service. If we transfer you to a reasonably comparable alternative service and this has more than a minor detrimental impact on you, you may cancel your service without having to pay any early termination charges for that service.

New and recontracting fixed length customers from 5 June 2012

7.12A If you're a fixed length contract customer at the date on which we're required to disconnect your service as part of the migration to the nbn network, we will terminate your service and your access to existing networks. No early termination fee will be charged in these circumstances.

You will be a fixed length contract customer if you are acquiring your service under a contract that has a fixed term and the contract requires you to pay an early termination fee if your service is cancelled before the end of that fixed term or if you are a pre-paid customer.

7.13 If we terminate the service for any reason, you must still pay us any charges incurred before the cancellation.

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

1.14 We may also terminate the service;

- (e) at any time after the end of your minimum term (unless you acquire the service under a Program); or
- (f) if you acquire the service under a Program, after the end of your Program term; or by telling you via letter or email at least 30 days beforehand.

Program has the meaning given to it in clause 21.1 of this Part.

Program term has the meaning given to in clause 21.4 of this Part.

7.12 Sometimes, we may need to suspend your service if it is necessary for the maintenance, integrity, protection or restoration of our networks or the users of our networks or a network used to supply your service. If we need to suspend your service, we will give you as much notice as we reasonably can in the circumstances and we will try to ensure that the suspension is for as short a period as is reasonably possible. This does not affect your minimum term. If we need to limit or suspend your service under this clause, usually we will give you 24 hours' notice, unless the maintenance is urgent, in which case we will give you as much notice as we reasonably can. We will try to ensure that the limitation or suspension is at night and for as short a period as is reasonably possible. However, where your service is provided on the nbn network, we are relying on NBN Co to determine the times for this work and to provide us with information about the nbn network. In these circumstances we will try and give you as much warning as we reasonably can.

7.13 We cannot control some external events that may affect us providing the service to you. If a regulatory event occurs, we may not be able to continue providing the service to you at all or may not be able to provide it on the same terms. If this happens, we will give you as much notice as we reasonably can. If we need to change the terms on which we supply the service, your minimum term will not be affected. If we need to terminate these terms, your minimum term will end but you will not pay any cancellation fee.

A regulatory event includes:

- (a) a determination or notice issued by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission; or
- (b) a determination by any court; or
- (c) a determination by us that, in our opinion, on reasonable grounds and acting in good faith, the supply of the BigPond service, these terms or any action taken or required to be taken in accordance with these terms contravenes or may contravene any applicable law including, without limitation, the Telecommunications Act 1997 (Cth) or the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth).

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

Our right to transfer your service

- 7.14 At any time after the end of your minimum term (or if you acquire your service under a Program, after the end of your Program term), we may transfer you to an alternative service or plan by telling you a reasonable time beforehand. If you are not satisfied with the alternative service or plan, you may terminate your service by telling us, or change to another in-market plan as provided under clause 6.

The effect of termination

- 7.15 If you are a Cable, ADSL or Wireless Broadband customer and your service is terminated:
- (a) any software licences granted to you as part of your service will immediately terminate and you must return to us or destroy any software we supplied to you and all copies as we direct; and
 - (b) you must immediately return any of our property to us.

Refund of prepayments

- 7.16 If you cancel your service under this clause, we will refund to you any other amount you have prepaid. However, we can deduct from your refund any amounts that you owe to us (unless these terms say otherwise). For example, we can deduct charges you have incurred before cancellation or any applicable cancellation fee.

8 Our liability to you

Terms applying to your service

- 8.1 Your service is supplied on the terms expressly set out and subject to non-excludable rights under consumer protection laws. Other representations or statements we make to you, whether in person, over the phone or in advertising or other materials you received, are not part of these terms. However, you may have other legal rights in relation to those representations.

Australian Consumer Law

- 8.2 Subject to clause 8.4, nothing in this BigPond service section of Our Customer Terms excludes or limits, or has the effect of excluding or limiting, the operation of the Australian Consumer Law or any right you may have under the Australian Consumer Law.

Liability and excluded types of loss

- 8.3 If you are a residential customer:

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

- (a) except as set out in the paragraphs below, we accept our liability to you for breach of contract or negligence under the principles applied by the courts and for breach of any non-excludable rights under consumer protection laws;
- (b) as your service is provided to you for the primary purpose of personal, domestic or household use, we do not accept liability to you for losses that result from the use of your service in connection with the conduct of a business. However, we will accept that liability if it cannot be excluded under any legislation; and
- (c) we are not liable for any loss to the extent that it is caused by you (for example, through your negligence or breach of contract).

8.4 If you are a business customer provided it is lawful to do so under consumer protection laws:

 - (i) for any personal injury or death to you, your employees, agents and contractors in relation to the supply of the service;

- (c) other than to the extent we have accepted liability under this clause 8 and for liability that cannot be lawfully excluded or limited under consumer protection laws, we exclude all other liability to you or a third party for breach of contract, negligence or any other law. For any liability that cannot be lawfully excluded but can be limited, our liability is limited to resupplying or paying the cost of resupplying services and repairing, replacing or paying the cost of repairing or replacing goods;
- (d) we are not liable for any loss to the extent that it is caused by you, your employees, agents or contractors; and

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

10 Changing these terms

Terms applying to BigPond services connected before 25 June 2019

- 10.1 Unless otherwise stated in the relevant part of this BigPond service section, we can change these terms (including any prices) in accordance with this clause 10.
- 10.2 We will tell you at least 30 days before a change, unless:
- (a) we need to make the change immediately in order to act legally or the change results from changes in the law. If this is the case, we will give you as much notice as we reasonably can; or
 - (b) we reasonably believe the change will benefit you, has no impact on you, or has neutral impact on you. If this is the case and subject to clause 21.4(e), we can make the change without telling you first, but will publish a notice on our website to let our customers know about the change.
- 10.3 If we make a change to your service during your minimum term and the change means that you are materially worse off (and does not fall within clause 10.2(a) or clause 2.6 in Part C - ADSL of the BigPond service section), you may terminate your service by telling us within 42 days from when we tell you about the change (or, if we did not tell you about the change, 42 days from when we publish a notice on our website about the change). If you terminate your service, you will not have to pay us the cancellation fee and the service will be terminated from the date the change takes effect.

- 10.4 If we make a change to your service after the end of your minimum term and you do not accept the change, you may cancel your service by telling us. Your service will be terminated from the date the change takes effect.
- 10.5 If you choose to cancel your service under clauses 10.3 or 10.4, we will refund you any unused portion of your monthly charges and give you a pro-rata rebate for any equipment you bought from us that cannot be used elsewhere.
- 10.6 If you do not tell us about your decision to terminate your service under clauses 10.3 or 10.4 and you (or any of your group members) continue using the service from the date on which the change comes into effect (or in the case of clause 10.4, 42 days from the date on which we told you about the change), the changes will apply to you.

Terms applying to Bigpond services connected on and from 25 June 2019

- 10.7 These clauses 10.7 to 10.19 apply to you and your Bigpond service if your Bigpond service was connected on or after 25 June 2019.

10.15 You can cancel your service on Fair Terms within 42 days of us telling you of the change if you are a fixed term customer.

When we reasonably consider that a change impacts you

10.16 In this clause 10, in determining whether we reasonably consider that a change is likely to have a detrimental impact on you, we will take into account whether:

- (a) you have used, or been billed for, the affected service in the last 6 months;
- (b) the service is an optional ‘add-on’ or ‘value add’ service that you have acquired in the past; and
- (c) the service is a ‘once-off service’ and we reasonably determine that you are likely to acquire the service in future.

We may use these methods to direct you to further information about the changes, such as on Telstra.com or at a Telstra Shop.

Professional installation is not available for all services.
- 11.5 If you choose to have your service professionally installed, we will install the broadband transmission facilities at your premises. We will also maintain those facilities for so long as we continue to supply the service to you.

- 11.17 If you ask us to install the broadband transmission facilities in a particular way and we tell you that we do not recommend that method of installation, subject to the Australian Consumer Law provisions in this BigPond service section of Our Customer Terms, we are not responsible for any loss that results from acting in accordance with your instructions.
- 11.18 You must ensure we are given safe access to the premises when we come to install, maintain or remove the broadband transmission facilities.
- 11.19 Sometimes we may need another party to help to install the broadband transmission facilities at the premises (such as a qualified plumber or electrician), or for a third party network operator to disconnect their telecommunications services or cables on the premises. If we need this kind of help, we will tell you first. You will need to arrange for the work to be completed before we proceed with our installation.

- 11.20 The broadband transmission facilities remain our property at all times.
- 11.21 The boundary of our telecommunications network means the boundary as ascertained in accordance with section 22 of the Telecommunications Act 1997 and is a physical point where our network ends. 22 Malware Suppression

22.1 Telstra may, at no additional charge, provide you with a network feature which helps identify when a device connected to your Telstra broadband service is infected with malware ("Malware Suppression Service").

Eligibility

Part A – General Terms for BigPond services

22.2 Malware Suppression is for customers with a BigPond ADSL, BigPond Cable, BigPond Velocity, BigPond Mobile Broadband or Telstra on the nbn network (including T-Biz™ Broadband).

What is Malware Suppression?

22.3 Malware (or malicious software) can infect your computer without your knowledge. Malware can use your internet connection to communicate with what is known as a Command and Control server. The Command and Control server can then use your computer to carry out malicious activities and potentially access your personal information.

22.4 Malware Suppression is provided using software on the BigPond network. The software helps identify when malware on a computer (or other device) connected to the BigPond network attempts to connect to its Command and Control server. The new technology will stop that connection from occurring.

22.5 The new technology also helps identify previously unknown Command and Control servers. Where the DNS server notices a pattern of queries from a number of different users which looks suspicious, we may send information about the suspicious target domain to our partner in the United States to examine whether the domain being queried is related to a botnet or Command and Control server. Our partner does not receive any information which enables the identification of individual customers.

22.6 There will be domains relating to botnets and Command and Control servers that have not yet been detected and cannot be blocked by Malware Suppression. Malware Suppression will not always prevent malware from connecting with Command and Control servers. You therefore should continue to secure your computers and devices.

22.7 While we use reasonable care and skill in providing Malware Suppression to you, there are also non-excludable statutory guarantees, implied conditions or warranties under consumer protection laws (such as Competition & Consumer Act 2010 (Cth)) that may apply to goods or services we supply, including guarantees that services be fit for their purpose. However, due to the nature of Malware Suppression, it may not be effective or available or may become unavailable due to any number of factors including, without limitation, acts of God, technical failure, telecommunications infrastructure, or delay or disruption attributable to viruses, denial of service attacks, increased or fluctuating demand, actions and omissions of third parties, or any other cause reasonably beyond our control.

This clause is not intended to limit your rights under consumer protection legislation, or limit or exclude the Australian Consumer Law provisions in this BigPond service section of Our Customer Terms.
