

Customer Service Advice from Telstra

Extreme Weather events impact service in East Coast, South East, Western, Upper Derwent Valley and Central Plateau Districts of Tasmania.

As previously notified by Telstra on Tuesday 20 January 2015, Telstra's normal operations in the in East Coast, South East, Western, Upper Derwent Valley and Central Plateau Districts of Tasmania were affected by a series of extreme weather events on or about Tuesday 13 January 2015. Telstra's telecommunications network in these areas have experienced high levels of damage that resulted in delays to installation and repair activities on a significant number of Telstra services. Due to the extent of damage to the Telstra network, the impact in the affected region has been greater than initially estimated, and as a consequence of the continued weather effects, the expected recovery date has now been extended to 22 February 2015.

Telstra has identified that the effect of these circumstances applies to an additional 600 services bringing the total number of services impacted to approximately 1,700 services. This number may increase as Telstra assesses the full affect of the extreme weather conditions. Based on current information, the resumption date of normal service operations is expected to be 22 February 2015. This date is indicative only; Telstra customers should anticipate that some further delays may occur. Telstra regrets any inconvenience caused to customers and thanks them for their patience while this work is being undertaken.

Telstra services encompassed in this exemption are in the area bounded by and including, but not limited to, the area starting at Buxton Pt on the east coast of Tasmania following the coastline clockwise around Southern Tasmania to Low Rocky Pt. From Low Rocky Pt the area heads northeast to Derwent Bridge, east to Waddamana then southeast past Woodbury back to Buxton Pt. All suburbs and towns, off shore islands and coastal areas serviced by Telstra within these boundaries are encompassed in this exemption.

Services in the area mentioned above with phone numbers in the following number ranges may have been affected:

03 6208 0000 To 03 6298 9999

As these circumstances were outside of Telstra's control, Telstra is claiming an extension to time frames applying under the Telecommunications (Customer Service Guarantee) Standard 2011. This means that Telstra is notifying customers that normal service time frames may not be met during the period of 14 January 2015 to 22 February 2015 inclusive (based on Telstra's estimated recovery schedule correct at the time of publication of this notice).

If you have any questions regarding your eligibility for a CSG payment under this notice, or would like us to reconsider whether the circumstances were a proper basis for claiming an exemption, you may contact us on the number displayed on your telephone account or alternatively on 132203 for service difficulties and faults or 132200 for sales, installations and billing- quoting CSG Exemption reference number 20150114-TAS-S-C-P-MID AND SOUTH EAST TASMANIA.
