

Customer Service Advice from Telstra

Delay due to severe weather in parts of the Mid North Coast District of New South Wales.

As previously notified by Telstra on 4 January 2019, parts of the Mid North Coast District of New South Wales was impacted by severe weather on or about Friday 21 December 2018 through to Sunday 23 December 2018. This event resulted in extensive damage to Telstra's telecommunications network. Due to the extent of damage to the Telstra network, the impact in the affected region has been greater than initially estimated, and as a consequence of the continued weather effects, the expected recovery date has now been extended to 10 February 2019.

The effect of these circumstances applies to an additional 250 services bringing the total number of services impacted to approximately 1,950 services. This number may increase as Telstra assesses the full effect of the severe weather conditions. Based on current information, the resumption date of normal service operations is expected to be 10 February 2019. This date is indicative only; Telstra customers should anticipate that some further delays may occur.

Telstra services encompassed in this exemption are in the area bounded by and including, but are not limited to the area starting at Bare Bluff following the NSW coast south past Coffs Harbour and Port Macquarie to Crowdy Head. The area turns west to Boorgana then northwest past Yarrawitch to Hillgrove. From Hillgrove the area heads northeast to Ebor, northwest to Wards Mistake then east back to Bare Bluff. All suburbs and towns, off shore islands and coastal areas serviced by Telstra within these boundaries are encompassed in this exemption.

What else do you need to know?

Information as to the nature of the severe weather events, which included large hailstones, heavy rainfall and damaging winds which occurred in the affected regions can be sourced from the Bureau of Meteorology (BOM). The BOM issued Severe Weather Warnings regarding these events commencing from on or about Friday 21 December 2018 through to Sunday 23 December 2018. Additionally these unusually severe weather events have been widely reported by most of the news media.

Due to this event, we're claiming an exemption under section 21 of the Telecommunications (Customer Service Guarantee) Standard 2011, including an exemption from the payment of compensation between 28 December 2018 to 10

February 2019 inclusive for any delays in fixing or connecting services, and the keeping of appointments relating to these activities in the impacted area.
