

Customer Service Advice from Telstra

Delay due to extreme weather events in the Peninsula, Gulf Country, Northern Goldfields and Upper Flinders District, North Tropical Coast and Tablelands, Herbert and Lower Burdekin Districts and Central Coast-Whitsundays Districts of Queensland.

As previously notified by Telstra on 5 February 2019, the Peninsula, Gulf Country, Northern Goldfields and Upper Flinders District, North Tropical Coast and Tablelands, Herbert and Lower Burdekin Districts and Central Coast-Whitsundays Districts of Queensland were impacted by extreme weather on or about Thursday 24 January 2019 through to Wednesday 30 January 2019, with areas of Queensland declared as Natural Disaster. This event resulted in extensive damage to Telstra's network, the impact in the affected region has been greater than initially estimated, and as a consequence the expected recovery date has now been extended to 31 March 2019.

The effect of the natural disaster and extreme weather events applies to an additional 1,700 services bringing the total number of services impacted to approximately 4,250 services. This number may increase as Telstra assesses the full effect of the extreme weather events. Based on current information, the resumption date of normal service operations is expected to be 31 March 2019.

Telstra services encompassed in this exemption are in the area bounded by and including, but are not limited to the area starting at Cape York, following the Queensland coastline southeast past Cooktown, Cairns, Innisfail, Townsville, Bowen to Calen. At Calen the area turns southwest past Mount Coolon to Galilee. At Galilee the area heads northwest past Maxwelton to Gidya, and then west to the QLD/NT border following the border north to the Gulf of Carpentaria. At the Gulf of Carpentaria, the area follows the QLD coastline southeast to Karumba, then north past Pormpuraaw and Aurukun returning to Cape York. All suburbs and towns, off shore islands and coastal areas serviced by Telstra within these boundaries are encompassed in this exemption.
