OUR CUSTOMER TERMS – MANAGED MEDIA CONTRIBUTION

Certain words are used with the specific meanings set out below or in the General Terms of Our Customers at <https://www.telstra.com.au/customer-terms/business-government>

1 ABOUT THE MANAGED MEDIA CONTRIBUTION SECTION

- 1.1 This is the Managed Media Contribution section of Our Customer Terms.
- 1.2 Unless you have entered into a separate agreement with us which excludes them, the General Terms of Our Customer Terms apply to the products and services provided under the Managed Media Contribution section. See section one of the General Terms of Our Customer Terms for more detail on how the various sections of Our Customer Terms are to be read together.

2 WHAT IS MANAGED MEDIA CONTRIBUTION SERVICE?

Overview

- 2.1 The Managed Media Contribution service (MMC Service) is a mobile broadband broadcast solution which provides access prioritisation and preferential data treatment (as further described below) for carriage of low bandwidth contribution data between Outside Broadcast (OB) locations and the broadcast production or studio premises of Eligible Customers.
- 2.2 The MMC Service is comprised of the following components:
 - (a) provision of access prioritisation and preferential data treatment on our existing public 4G/LTE mobile network, as further described in clauses 3.1 and 3.2;
 - (b) the ability to connect a MMC Device using a MMC SIM to your MMC Service, as further described in clauses 4 and 5;
 - (c) a MMC Data Plan, as further described in clauses 6 and 9; and
 - (d) managed services, as further described in clause 7.
- 2.3 The MMC Service operates across the union of two carriage components:
 - (a) Wireless First Mile: Telstra 4G/LTE is utilised between the OB location and Telstra's core network. The MMC Service transmits the contribution data across Telstra's 4G/LTE wireless network using 3GPP standards based QoS.
 - (b) Internet Last Mile: Your existing business grade Internet service provides for last mile delivery of contribution data into your broadcast production or studio premises.

Eligibility

- 2.4 You are only an "Eligible Customer" for the MMC Service if you:
 - (a) are an enterprise customer with a valid ABN, ACN or ARBN providing broadcast media services, as determined by us; and

OUR CUSTOMER TERMS – MANAGED MEDIA CONTRIBUTION

- (b) hold a broadcasting licence issued by the Australian Communications and Media Authority authorising you to transmit television or radio programs to the public.
- 2.5 In order to access and use the MMC Service, you must have an active business grade Internet service into your broadcast production or studio premises.

Service Limitations

- 2.6 Subject to clause 2.7, the MMC Service is only available in areas where there is access to our public 3G/4G/LTE mobile network and the relevant MMC Device is able to connect to that network. For the avoidance of doubt, for the MMC Service this only includes 3G/4G/LTE coverage (not 2G or satellite communications).
- 2.7 If our public 4G/LTE network service is unavailable, the MMC Service may switch over to our 3G network (where available). If this occurs, you will not receive access prioritisation and preferential data treatment while you remain on the 3G mobile network, but you will still be able to transmit contribution data using your MMC Service.
- 2.8 Your ability to access our public 4G/LTE mobile network depends on, amongst other things, coverage availability, local conditions, capability of MMC Devices and distance from the base station.
- 2.9 The MMC Service is a national service available for use only within Australia. The MMC Service cannot be used to roam onto any other domestic or international mobile network.
- 2.10 The MMC Service is not available to Telstra Wholesale customers.
- 2.11 You must not resell the MMC Service, or any MMC Device or MMC SIM supplied in conjunction with it.
- 2.12 You agree that we are entitled to suspend the MMC Service in the event that we are required or entitled to suspend our public 3G/4G/LTE mobile network (for example, for maintenance or due to an event beyond our reasonable control which prevents provision of the service).
- 2.13 If you tether a device to any other device which is connected to the MMC Service, you may not receive access prioritisation or preferential data treatment.

3 ACCESS PRIORITISATION AND PREFERENTIAL DATA TREATMENT

- 3.1 As part of the MMC Service, you will receive access prioritisation on our public 4G/LTE mobile network. Access prioritisation means that during times of congestion on our 4G/LTE mobile network, we will prioritise attempts from customers of the MMC Service to access our 4G/LTE mobile network ahead of certain other users, but below that of emergency services and emergency situations (for example, 000 and 112 calls).
- 3.2 As part of the MMC Service, our public 4G/LTE mobile network automatically provides preferential treatment to your data over certain other users, but below that of emergency services and emergency situations (for example, 000 and 112 calls), of our Public LTE Mobile Network if your data throughput drops below a certain target.

- 3.3 Preferential data treatment means that customers of the MMC Service will be provided with preferential data treatment while their contribution data is being transmitted via the public 4G/LTE mobile network over certain other users, but below that of emergency services and 000 call users.
- 3.4 Your data will not be prioritised or given preferential treatment over the data of other MMC Service customers or customers receiving equivalent prioritisation or preferential treatment services.
- 3.5 Even with access prioritisation and preferential data treatment, you acknowledge and agree traffic related to high priority government and emergency situations (for example, 000 and 112 calls) will be prioritised and given preferential treatment over your traffic.
- 3.6 The MMC Service does not support VoLTE data as part of access prioritisation or preferential data treatment.
- 3.7 Preferential data treatment does not guarantee a minimum throughput for your data on our public 4G/LTE mobile network.

4 MMC DEVICES

- 4.1 The MMC Service may only be accessed:
 - (a) on the Telstra APN which enables prioritisation or preferential treatment on our public 4G/LTE mobile network; and
 - (b) using the Telstra APN described in clause 4.1(a) on an approved SIM hosting routing device (MMC Device) that has been certified 3GPP QoS interoperable with the Telstra national 4G/LTE wireless infrastructure.
- 4.2 You must select from one of the following MMC Devices to be supplied to you as part of your MMC Service:
 - (a) Sierra Wireless AirLink MP70 (including an external antenna); or
 - (b) Netgear Nighthawk M1.
- 4.3 As part of your MMC Service, we manage on your behalf any manufacturer warranties that are provided in connection with your selected MMC Device for the term of your MMC Service. Details of the applicable manufacturer warranties are available from Telstra on request.
- 4.4 We aim to ship your MMC Device from our facilities within five (5) business days after we acknowledge receipt of your order for the MMC Service. If we agree to replace a faulty Device as part of our managed service obligations, we aim to ship your replacement MMC Device within five (5) business days after receipt of your returned faulty MMC Device.
- 4.5 You must use your MMC Device in accordance with any guidelines or user guides issued by Telstra or the manufacturer of that MMC Device.

OUR CUSTOMER TERMS – MANAGED MEDIA CONTRIBUTION

- 4.6 The MMC Devices for use with the MMC Service must have the configuration, operating system and firmware version set out in our agreement with you, or as otherwise notified to you in writing.

5 MMC SIMS

- 5.1 In order to access the MMC Service, you must use the specific SIM supplied and installed in the MMC Device by us for use in connection with the MMC Service (MMC SIM). You cannot use any other type of SIM to access the MMC Service.
- 5.2 The MMC SIM is installed and configured in the MMC Device by Telstra prior to delivery to you. We will activate the MMC SIM contained in each MMC Device at the time when the MMC Device is dispatched to you
- 5.3 The MMC SIM will be delivered to you unlocked without a PIN code. You must ensure that you implement appropriate procedures to prevent unauthorised use of you MMC SIM.
- 5.4 The MMC SIM can only be used in connection with your MMC Service and not for any other telecommunications services.
- 5.5 The MMC SIM should never be removed from the MMC Device unless under direct instruction from a Telstra technical contact.
- 5.6 The MMC SIM:
- (a) cannot be used for and does not support voice calls or SMS; and
 - (b) is not compatible with international use.

6 DATA PLANS

- 6.1 A data plan for the MMC Service allows you to use an MMC Device with a MMC SIM to transmit contribution data from OB locations to your broadcast production or studio premises (MMC Data Plan).
- 6.2 In connection with your MMC Service, you must select from one of the following available MMC Data Plans:
- (a) a fixed data plan (MMC Fixed Data Plan); or
 - (b) a pay-as-you-go data plan (MMC PAYG Plan),
- as further described in clause 9 below.
- 6.3 Regardless of whether you select a MMC Fixed Data Plan or a MMC PAYG Plan, your MMC Service will continue on a month to month basis following initial activation and you may cancel your MMC Service at any time in accordance with clause 10.2.
- 6.4 MMC Data Plans do not include any voice allowance or permit you to make voice calls.
- 6.5 MMC Data Plans can only be used with a MMC Service and must be on a separate account to any other Telstra mobile services.

OUR CUSTOMER TERMS – MANAGED MEDIA CONTRIBUTION

- 6.6 You may select either a MMC Fixed Data Plan or a MMC PAYG Plan for your MMC Service. You cannot mix plan types on the same account.
- 6.7 If you wish to change from one type of MMC Data Plan to another, you must cancel your existing MMC Service and order a new MMC Service with the revised MMC Data Plan selected for that new MMC Service.
