3 Flexi-Plans

Discounts

- 3.1 If you are eligible for a particular Flexi-Plan, you pay the monthly Flexi-Plan charge in return for discounts off eligible calls.

Part E – Business Telephone Discounts

- 3.2 Where a Flexi-Plan specifies a particular monthly level of spending on eligible calls, we multiply this amount by two or three if we bill you every two or three months instead of every month.

Availability

- 3.3 We apply the Flexi-Plan to your account, not to individual services. If you have two or more services on the one account, the Flexi-Plan applies to all of them. Also, any charges or minimum spending conditions apply to the whole account not for each service on the account.
- 3.4 Some Flexi-Plans also combine your spending across all your accounts to determine what level of discount you receive on calls from services on each of the accounts. These Flexi-Plans set this out in their specific terms.
- 3.5 Unless the terms for a specific Flexi-Plan say otherwise, you can add more than one Flexi-Plan to your account at the same time (as long as you are eligible for each of them).

Choosing, changing or cancelling your Flexi-Plan

- 3.6 Unless the terms for a specific Flexi-Plan say otherwise, you can cancel a Flexi-Plan on your account at any time. We credit the remaining portion of your monthly Flexi-Plan charge from the date your cancellation takes effect.
- 3.7 If you ask us to add a Flexi-Plan to your account, to change your Flexi-Plan or cancel it, your request does not take effect until we process it.

Ineligible calls

- 3.8 The following calls are never eligible for Flexi-Plan discounts and do not count towards any eligible spending:
- QuickCall local calls,
 - calls under the Wide Area Call option,
 - calls under the Regional Call option,
 - operator assisted calls,
 - Telecard calls made from a card or swipe phone,
 - FreeCall 1800 calls,
 - calls to 13 services (including 1300 and 1345 services),
 - calls to the Call Plan service,
 - international Phone Australia calls,
