1 About this Part

1.1 This is part of the Digital Data Services section of Our Customer Terms. Provisions in other parts of the Digital Data Services section, as well as in the General Terms of Our Customer Terms, may apply.

See clause 1 of the General Terms of Our Customer Terms for more detail on how the various sections of Our Customer Terms should be read together.

See clause 1 of Part A – General of the Digital Data Services section for more detail on how the various parts of the Digital Data Services section should be read together.

2 Digital Data Service (DDS)

What is DDS?

2.1 Our Digital Data Service (“DDS”) provides high quality, leased line digital data transmission in a range of speeds. DDS includes:

- (a) point-to-point services – where two data stations are connected by a dedicated line and
- (b) multipoint services – where three or more stations are connected on a single digital data line.

2.2 You can only use DDS and connect to a multipoint service (whether currently existing or otherwise) if you are the holder of the account under which all the services in the multipoint network are billed.

Availability

2.3 We have withdrawn from sale for new retail customers, new wholesale customers and new end customers of our wholesale customers all services set out in this Part B – DDS.

2.4 On and from 1 December 2008, you will no longer be able to make adds, moves and changes to the services set out in this Part B - DDS.

2.5 On and from 31 December 2009 the Digital Data Services set out in this Part B – DDS

Our Customer Terms

Digital Data Services Section

Part B – DDS

will be withdrawn from the market and no longer be provided to all customers.

Service features

2.6 For DDS we give you:

- (a) connection from our network boundary point at your first specified address to the local exchange;
- (b) connection from our network boundary point at your second specified address to the local exchange; and
- (c) access to DDS.

2.7 The data speeds, configuration and service interfaces of DDS are set out below:

DDS service features
Speed (kbit/s)	1.2, 2.4, 4.8, 9.6, 19.2	2.4, 4.8, 9.6	48
Configuration	Point-to-point Multipoint	Out of area	Point-to-point Multipoint
Service interfaces	X.21 bis (V.24) (synchronous and asynchronous) X.21	X.21 bis (V.24) (synchronous and asynchronous)	X.21 bis (V.35) X.21

X.21 is an interface between your data terminal unit and a network termination unit for synchronous operation on a digital data line.

X.21 bis is an interface between your data terminal equipment and a network termination unit that is compatible with V-series data modem interfaces

Availability

2.8 DDS may be used for communications between all major Australian capital cities and most regional and country areas in Australia if network infrastructure is available.

Minimum commitment and temporary service

2.9 You must take the DDS for at least 12 months.

Part B – DDS

2.10 However, you can take DDS on a temporary basis.

Cancelling your service

2.11 If you cancel a DDS before the end of the 12-month term, we can charge you the following:

- (a) within 6 months after installation, temporary charges set out below for the period the DDS operated; or
- (b) 6 months or more after installation, the total connection charge and the monthly charges for the full 12 months.

Charging areas

2.12 Some of our charges depend on whether your premises are in primary, secondary or tertiary areas or if you have out of area access.

A full list of primary, secondary and tertiary area centres is set out under Changing zones and areas in Part A – General of the Digital Data Services section of Our Customer Terms.

You have out of area access if your premises are outside primary, secondary and tertiary areas.

3 Connecting your DDS

Connection charges

3.1 We charge you the following for connecting your DDS (including a temporary service). The charge for out of area access includes installation of a transmission path from your premises to the primary area.

3.2 The connection charge covers connecting you to our network and connecting your property (ie, installing and testing cabling from the building entry point to our network boundary).
