2 Telstra VMR Companion Application

The application

- 2.1 The Telstra VMR Companion Application functionality is described inside the application and includes, but is not limited to:
 - (a) Identifying participants on a virtual meeting room (VMR) call through a combination of one or all of the below:
 - (i) name;
 - (ii) phone number; or
 - (iii) profile picture;
 - (b) Mute and un-mute participants on a VMR call; and
 - (c) Remove participants from a VMR call.

The functionality available to you will depend on if you are a VMR host or participant.

- 2.2 Customers can access the Telstra VMR Companion Application through the Apple and Android mobile store.
- 2.3 Once downloaded the user can customise their profile by entering details such as their name, phone number, VMR number and profile picture.

Eligibility

- 2.4 To be eligible to purchase and use the Telstra VMR Companion Application, you must also purchase from us (or have already purchased) and maintain in operation either the Telstra IP Telephony Video Meeting Room or Cloud Collaboration - CISCO Powered Video products directly from us (either product, a VMR Service).
- 2.5 The Telstra VMR Companion Application is not available to Telstra wholesale customers or for resale.

3 Performance and faults

- 3.1 You may report faults through the “Support” link inside the Telstra VMR Companion Application. We will respond to fault reports on a best efforts basis during business hours. We will try to ensure, but do not guarantee that your Telstra VMR Companion Application will be continuous and fault free.
- 3.2 We will try to ensure, but do not guarantee that your Telstra VMR Companion Application has sufficient capacity to deal with the volume of calls agreed with you in your VMR Service.

4 Ownership

- 4.1 You understand that we (or our licensors) own all rights (including intellectual property rights) in the Telstra VMR Companion Application.
- 4.2 You must not take any action that jeopardises our (or our licensors’) rights in the Telstra VMR Companion Application.
