Important info about your service and privacy

This guide covers your Foxtel from Telstra service agreement and privacy statement
Now you’ve got Foxtel from Telstra, you’ll need to know the ins and outs of the Agreement you have entered into. Read on for a clear outline of your entitlements, our responsibilities to each other and other important information.
01 Introduction

01.01 This Agreement is a contract between you and us and is made up of a number of documents which you should already have:
   a) the terms set out here;
   b) the Installation Terms;
   c) the Critical Information Summary; and
   d) the Installation Guide (where applicable).

01.02 Together, these documents are the terms on which we’ll provide your Service, and install and maintain the Equipment and Infrastructure.

01.03 This Agreement starts when you agree to take up the Service with us, either over the phone or in person. You need to comply with this Agreement if you want to receive the Service.

02 The Service and you

This section tells you about the Service you’ve ordered from us. It includes details about how we can change the Service and about how you can change your Programming Package.

How we provide the Service

02.01 We provide the Service to you under the terms of this Agreement.

The Term

02.02 We’ll provide the Service to you for:
   a) the Set Term; or
   b) a Monthly Term (if you didn’t agree to a Set Term at the start of this Agreement, or when the Set Terms ends as described under 03.03 below), unless this Agreement ends earlier.

Extending the Set Term

02.03 Once the Set Term ends, we’ll continue providing you with the Service on a Monthly Term under the terms of this Agreement.

Activating the Service

02.04 Activation of the Service may be delayed for up to two days if you were receiving a subscription television service from Foxtel or another Foxtel provider immediately before the start of this Agreement.

When you want to change the Service

02.05 You can:
   a) add Extra Packages and Stand-alone Channels to your Programming Package at any time (for a minimum term of one month);
   b) remove Extra Packages and Stand-alone Channels at any time (subject to paragraph 03.07), as long as you always have the ‘Entertainment’ Package;
   c) upgrade or downgrade your Foxtel Box according to in-market availability at the time of your request.

For existing customers prior to 3 November 2014 who have not changed to the New Programming Package you:
   a) cannot add or remove General Entertainment Extra Packages from your Programming Package;
   b) cannot add any new Extra Packages made available as part of the New Programming Package (except BoxSets Channel);
c) must recontract and start a new Set Term in order to subscribe to the New Programming Package (except BoxSets Channel). In these circumstances you will not be required to pay an Early Cancellation Fee or a recontracting fee.

02.06 If you want to upgrade or downgrade your Service then you need to let us know. You may need to return your Foxtel Box and pay the Equipment Fee, the Foxtel HD Box Functionality Fee (if applicable) and the installation fee set out in the Critical Information Summary to receive the new Foxtel Box.

02.07 Any increase or reduction in Service Charges that occurs because of changes you make under paragraphs 03.05 or 03.06 will apply from the date you make the change, or, if upgrading or downgrading your Foxtel Box, from the date the relevant Foxtel Box is installed and activated.

If this date is during and not at the end of a Billing Cycle, the Subscription Fees applying for that Billing Cycle will be adjusted in accordance with the number of days in the Billing Cycle during which the:

a) Programming Package; and/or
b) the Service to which the Subscription Fees relate was supplied.

When we may change the Service

02.08 We may change the Service to reflect changes made by Foxtel, broadcasters of Retransmitted Services, or Channel Providers by:

a) changing the scheduled programs or broadcast times within your Programming Package;
b) changing or withdrawing a Channel, On Demand Program, or Main Event Program, or withdrawing any Retransmitted Service;
c) adding, withdrawing or changing features or functionality of the Service. If you pay extra for the affected features or functionality we’ll give you notice of the withdrawal or change wherever possible.

If a reduction in functionality or other detrimental change results, we will compensate you via a replacement service if available; otherwise by a pro-rata rebate of the extra amount paid; or

d) restricting some of the features of the Foxtel PDR in relation to any Channel, On Demand Program or Main Event Program where we do not have permission for the relevant program to be recorded, or as per paragraphs 04.11 and 04.12.

02.09 If we withdraw a Channel during the Set Term and this causes more than a nominal detrimental change to your Programming Package, but the channel isn’t replaced with a similar genre Channel or the price of the Programming Package isn’t reduced accordingly, you can end this Agreement without an Early Cancellation Fee – as long as you notify us within 30 days of being told about the withdrawal.

02.10 If we withdraw a feature or functionality during the Set Term and this causes a more than nominal detrimental change to the Service, and the price of the Service relating to that feature or functionality isn’t reduced accordingly, you can end this Agreement without an Early Cancellation Fee – as long as you notify us within 30 days of being told about the withdrawal.

Foxtel HD Service and Foxtel SD Service

02.11 If you acquire the Foxtel HD Service or the Foxtel SD Service:

a) we may download content, additional features or functionality to the Foxtel PDR from time to time, and this may affect the total amount of space you have for recording programs; and
b) you acknowledge that the programs you record on the Foxtel PDR may be irretrievably erased for any reason, including if:

i) the Service is cancelled, you decide to terminate the Foxtel HD Service or the Foxtel SD Service, or this Agreement is otherwise terminated in accordance with its terms;
ii) we are required to do so by our content suppliers;
iii) there is a power surge or severe weather conditions;
iv) we or Foxtel reformat your Foxtel PDR because we reasonably believe that doing so will help preserve your Service or the Service of others;
v) the account holder at your Address changes, you transfer the Service to another Address, or we alter your account details;
vi) the Foxtel PDR, or any part of it, including the Smart Card, is defective or ceases to operate;
vii) you try to use the Foxtel PDR other than in accordance with its operating instructions; or viii) you remove the Extra Package or Standalone Channel from which a program was recorded.

02.12 If you acquire the Foxtel HD Service without an HD Foxtel from Telstra Program Package or you don’t have a high definition TV set (ie one that is high-bandwidth digital content protection (HDCP) compliant), you will not be able to view Foxtel from Telstra HD channels or programs in a high definition format.

Foxtel Magazine
02.13 If you want to receive the Foxtel magazine, you’ll need to pay the Magazine Fee for each copy of the Foxtel magazine you want to receive. If you subscribe to the Foxtel magazine during a Billing Cycle, you’ll be charged the Magazine Fee for that Billing Cycle on your next bill.

02.14 You need to tell us if you don’t want to receive the Foxtel magazine any more.

Interactive Services
02.15 From time to time we may offer or introduce Interactive Services as part of your Programming Package. Interactive Services may not be available at all times or at your Address if you live in a multi-dwelling unit block or townhouse complex. (We’ll let you know when you take up the Service.) You may not be able to record Interactive Services to the Foxtel PDR. We will tell you the cost of any Interactive Services when you place your order.

Remote Record and the Foxtel app
02.16 If you want to use Remote Record or the Foxtel app you need to go to the Foxtel website and register for an Online Account first.

If you need to suspend the Service
02.17 You can suspend the Service as many times as you like in a 12 month period (starting from the commencement of this Agreement).

What happens when you tell us you want to suspend?
02.18 To suspend the Service, you need to pay a suspension fee.

What happens when you suspend the Service?
02.19 While the Service is suspended:
a) you won’t be able to receive the Service (including any On Demand Programs, Main Event Programs, Retransmitted Services or the Foxtel Magazine);
b) you won’t be able to access any programs recorded to the Foxtel PDR; and
c) you won’t be able to receive any Third Party Service. You should contact your Third Party Service Provider to discuss how this will affect your contract with them.
d) You won’t be able to access Special Events.

Period for which you can suspend 02.20 You can suspend the Service for a minimum of one week and a maximum of 12 months. You have to give us a reactivation date, and we will re-activate the Service on that date. If you don’t provide a date, we’ll automatically reactivate the Service 12 months after we suspend it.
After the Service is reactivated
02.21 Unless you give us other instructions, we’ll reactivate the Service with the same Programming Package that you had beforehand. You may not be able to access or retrieve any programs which were recorded to the Foxtel PDR before the Service was suspended.

02.22 If you also receive a Third Party Service, you may need to contact the Third Party Service Provider separately to reactivate their service.

02.23 For customers who signed up to a Service prior to 1 March 2013, if you suspend during the Set Term, then the Set Term will not be extended by the suspension period. For customers who sign up on or after 1 March 2013 if you suspend during the Set Term, then the Set Term will be extended by the suspension period.

Transferring the Service to another Address 02.24 You may transfer the Service to another Address. If you do, you’ll need to pay a transfer fee and you may not be able to access any programs that you recorded to the Foxtel PDR before the move. However due to the geographic coverage of the Service and other technical limitations mean we may not be able to provide the Service or the same Service at the new Address. If so, we’ll let you know and you can cancel the request to transfer. Otherwise we’ll treat your request to transfer as notice by you to cancel this Agreement. The terms outlined under ‘When this Agreement ends’ will apply.

How you can use the Service
02.25 You are only permitted to use the Service and Foxtel Guide lawfully and for private viewing purposes at your Address. You are not allowed to offer, use or supply the Service or the Foxtel Guide except as permitted in this Agreement.

02.26 If you don’t use the Service or the Foxtel Guide in accordance with this Agreement, we may cancel this Agreement and you’ll have to pay us for reasonable loss, cost, expense, or damage arising from your breach. For example, if you show a Channel in a Public Viewing Area we may charge you an amount based on how much we pay to Foxtel under their agreement with the relevant Channel Provider.

02.27 Make sure you don’t let a still image remain on your TV screen for an extended period. This can cause a permanent residual image (burn-in) on your screen.

Examples of still images include:
- channel logos and certain channel formats;
- images displayed in a 04:03, 14:09 and 16:09 mode that are different to your television set up;
- on-screen information that is part of programs (tickers on news channels, for example);
- Foxtel Guide;
- games and Interactive Services (including any on screen icons); and
- audio channels.

Plasma, Rear Projection and LCD televisions are at a higher risk of burn-in, especially during the first 200 hours of use. Always check the TV’s user guide for operating instructions. See clauses relating to ‘Liability’ for further information.

Retransmitted Services
02.28 We or Foxtel Management Pty Limited may provide you with the Retransmitted Services. There’s no additional charge for Retransmitted Services. You acknowledge that we have no control over the Retransmitted Services (for example, scheduling or content and supply or non-supply by the broadcaster of the Retransmitted Services, including closed captions and the availability of Retransmitted Services on the Foxtel Box).

You can nominate a representative
02.29 If you’d like another person to have access to your account details, so we can speak to them about your account with us, contact us and we will tell you what’s involved.
Third Party Services
02.30 If you receive a Third Party Service you acknowledge that:
   a) you are responsible for all costs and charges payable to the Provider; and
   b) we can still cancel this Agreement in accordance with its terms, without any further liability to you.

Personal Identification Number (PIN)
02.31 You may need to use a PIN to access certain channels. We encourage you to keep the PIN safe and confidential and use it responsibly. You’re responsible for any fees and charges that are incurred through the use of your PIN.

02.32 You must ensure that only persons authorised to purchase an Adult Program do so. If you like, you can also use your PIN to limit access to channels, some On Demand Programs and Main Event Programs which can be purchased under this Agreement. Please see your Foxtel Box manual or contact us if you want to know how to do this, or if you want to change your PIN.

Codes of Practice
02.33 We are regulated by ASTRAs codes of practice for subscription television. You can obtain a copy of the codes by contacting us or at astra.org.au

03 On Demand and Main Event
This section tells you how you can order a program which is offered on On Demand, Main Event or Foxtel Store Movie rental and TV Show rental.

How you order
03.01 With your Foxtel Box, you should order any On Demand Pay Per View Programs or Main Event Programs by using the Foxtel Guide or Remote Record. You can also order On Demand Pay Per View Programs (but not Store Movie rental and TV Show rental) and Main Event Programs by calling Foxtel on 13 1999. Some On Demand Programs can only be ordered if your internet enabled Foxtel PDR is connected to an eligible Broadband Connection.

03.02 However, you may not be able to order an On Demand Pay Per View Program or Main Event Program if you have not paid us any amount when initially due.

What you pay
03.03 We’ll let you know the cost of any On Demand Pay Per View Program or Main Event Program when you order it. Some On Demand Pay Per View Programs and Main Event Programs may not be available at your Address.

What if the On Demand Pay Per View Program or Main Event Program is cancelled or is not broadcast?
03.04 We won’t charge you for an On Demand Pay Per View Program or Main Event Program if we cancel its broadcast.

How many times can you watch?
03.05 If you’re on the Standard Service, you can watch an On Demand Pay Per View Program (other than an Adult Program) each time it screens from the time you purchase the On Demand Pay Per View Program until the next 5.59am (AEST), without having to pay any further charge to us. You can only view an Adult Program once, except if the following paragraph applies to you.

03.06 If you record or download an On Demand Pay Per View Program to your Foxtel PDR, you’ll be able to watch it as often as you want during the 48 hours after you first start to play it (unless it gets deleted). However, for Foxtel Store Movie rental and TV Show rental you have 7 days from completion of download to start watching a movie (unless it gets deleted earlier) and for a TV show, you have up to 90 days from completion of download to start watching (unless it gets deleted earlier). For Foxtel Store Movie rental and TV Show rental, once you start watching, unless it gets deleted first, you’ll have 2 days to watch a movie and 10 days to watch a TV show. If you’ve ordered an Adult Program through the Foxtel PDR, you’ll be able to watch it any time within 24 hours from when you first start to view it (as long as it isn’t deleted first).

03.07 If you record or download a Main Event Program to your Foxtel PDR, you’ll be able to watch it as often as you want during the 24 hours after you first start to play it (unless it gets deleted).

03.08 We may set a different time period for viewing On Demand Pay Per View Programs. We’ll let you know how long you can view each On Demand Pay Per View Program when you start watching it.

03.09 Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if you’ve bought a Main Event Program and it is repeated, you may need to pay an additional Main Event Charge to view the repeat screening. We’ll tell you if this is the case.

Where you can watch

03.10 If you have more than one Foxtel Box at your Address, and you use your remote control to order or download an On Demand Pay Per View Program or Main Event Program via the Foxtel Guide, you’ll only be able to view the program on the television attached to the Foxtel Box through which you ordered it. Main Event or On Demand Pay Per View Programs ordered by phone or My Account can be viewed on any Foxtel Box attached to your account.

Recording On Demand or Main Event Programs

03.11 We may restrict your ability to record or download an On Demand Pay Per View Program or Main Event Program to the Foxtel PDR, or to access a program stored on your Foxtel PDR. We’ll tell you if this is the case before you purchase the program.

03.12 Any On Demand Pay Per View Program or Main Event Program which can be recorded or downloaded to a Foxtel PDR will be deleted at a time specified by us. We’ll specify this time for you when you purchase the Program.

Connection of Broadband.

03.13 If you order or use Interactive Services, On Demand Pay Per View Programs or Main Event Programs, you need to make sure the Broadband Connection is connected to the Foxtel Box and working at all times.

04 Making payments

Paying us for the Service

04.01 You must provide us with accurate and complete billing information (including your legal name, address and telephone number); and let us know of any changes to your billing information as they happen.

04.02 You must pay the Service Charges for the supply of the Service.

04.03 You acknowledge that Telstra will bill you for your Service Charges for each Billing Cycle, and may issue an interim Bill at any time.

04.04 You agree to pay Telstra the Service Charges.

Bills

04.05 We try to include all Service Charges relating to a Billing Cycle on the relevant Bill. Sometimes, however, your Bill may include Service Charges from a previous Billing Cycle.

What happens if you don’t pay?

04.06 If you don’t pay the Service Charges set out in a Bill by the due date, we will notify you and give you seven days to make the payment. We may suspend your Service during this period and reduce your Subscription Fees proportionately for the time your Service is suspended.
04.07 If you don’t make your payment within the seven days, we can:
a) restrict the Service (for example, you won’t be able to upgrade your Programming Package or record programs to your Foxtel PDR);
b) erase or prevent retrieval of any programs recorded on your Foxtel PDR;
c) suspend the Service until all amounts due have been paid (any Third Party Service will also be suspended);
d) cancel this Agreement;
e) take legal action against you to recover the unpaid amount;
f) refer you to a collection agency; and/or
g) report your default to a credit reporting agency (see ‘reporting payment defaults’ below for when this might happen).

04.08 If you don’t pay the Service Charges set out in a Bill by the due date, additional fees may apply in accordance with the Single Bill terms. These include late payment fees and reconnection fees if we disconnect your Service because of the non-payment.

04.09 If you pay a Bill by cheque and the cheque is dishonoured, you’ll also need to pay a $16.50 fee (GST inclusive). If you pay a Bill by direct debit and there are insufficient funds in the account, you’ll also need to pay an $11.00 fee (GST inclusive).

Reporting payment defaults
04.10 If any Service Charges are still unpaid 60 days after their due date, and we have taken steps to recover the relevant amount, we may report your default to a credit reporting agency. If we report your default to a credit reporting agency your credit rating may be affected and you may have difficulty obtaining credit in the future.

When we will reconnect you 04.11 If we suspend the Service for non-payment, we may reconnect it if you pay all outstanding amounts.

04.12 If we suspend the Service, and then reconnect it once you have paid the amount outstanding, then:
a) any Set Term will not be extended by the period for which the Service was suspended; and
b) we may change the Billing Cycle. We will give you prior notice of your new Billing Cycle.

Commissions
04.13 We may pay commission to any person who introduces you to us.

Adjustments
04.14 We can round charges up or down to the nearest whole cent (5¢ is rounded up).

04.15 If you pay a Bill in cash, we’ll round the amount to the nearest multiple of 5¢.

04.16 We can pay you amounts we owe you by deducting them from amounts you owe us.

Credit Balances
04.17 If you have a credit balance of $5 or less in any of your accounts with us, we only have to pay it to you if you ask in writing.

GST
04.18 If GST is imposed on any supply we make to you under this Agreement, you’ll need to pay the additional amount, which is calculated by multiplying the GST-exclusive amount by the prevailing GST rate. We will issue a tax Invoice to you for any supply on which GST is imposed.

Broadband Connection 04.19 You acknowledge that:
a) we will retrieve information about whether you have incurred any On Demand Charges or Main Event Charges from your Foxtel Box each month. We’ll do this using the internet if you have an active Broadband Connection connected to your HD Service or SD Service;
b) you are responsible for all costs associated with the Broadband Connection, including the costs we incur to dial back from the Foxtel Box;
c) call costs associated with this Agreement may vary depending on your location and the Service you receive. For example, you may be charged premium rates or long distance call costs for some Services; and
d) you’re responsible for all costs associated with your use of Foxtel online and mobile applications, such as the Foxtel app.

04.20 You promise us that, if you are not the account holder of the Broadband Connection used with your Service:
a) the account holder has agreed that the Foxtel Box can be connected to their Broadband Connection; and
b) you have made the account holder aware that charges will apply as a result of that connection.

05 When this Agreement ends

This section tells you what happens when either you or we cancel this Agreement.

When you can cancel this Agreement

05.01 You may cancel this Agreement:
a) at any time by giving us 35 days notice (and we may ask for written confirmation);
b) in accordance with the terms set out under ‘When we may change the Service’, ‘Changes to this Agreement’ and ‘Circumstances we can’t control’; or
c) by exercising your rights to terminate during a cooling-off period under consumer protection laws if you’ve taken up the Service through a sales channel where those rights are available to you under those laws. You wouldn’t need to pay an Early Cancellation Fee in such circumstances, and any other rights you have under consumer protection laws which cannot be excluded or limited will continue to apply notwithstanding the termination.

When we can cancel this Agreement

05.02 In addition to our other rights to cancel this Agreement, we may cancel this Agreement after the end of the Set Term by giving you at least 28 days notice.

05.03 Unless paragraph 05.07 or 05.08 applies, if you breach a material term of this Agreement, we will notify you of the breach and give you a specified period to remedy the breach. We may suspend your Service during this notice period and reduce your Subscription Fees proportionately. If you don’t remedy your breach within the time allowed, or the breach can’t be remedied, we may cancel the Agreement.

Material terms of this Agreement include the terms set out under the headings ‘How you can use the Service’ and ‘Liability’ and, from the Installation Terms, ‘Permission’, ‘How you can use the Equipment and Infrastructure’, ‘What you must do with the Equipment and Infrastructure’ and ‘What you cannot do with the Equipment and Infrastructure’.

05.04 Despite the preceding clause, we may suspend the Service or cancel this Agreement immediately if:
i) Foxtel suspends or cancels supply of the Service to us;
ii) Foxtel directs us to suspend or cancel supply of the Service to you;
iii) the Service is being used in a way forbidden by this Agreement;
iv) a Regulatory Event occurs;
v) we receive notification of your death;
vii) any other part of this Agreement says so; or
vii) we have evidence to believe, on reasonable grounds, that you have committed a serious infringement (that is, acted fraudulently in applying for or in receiving the Service; or caused genuine distress to any of our employees, agents or contractors in connection with this Agreement).
05.05 If we suspend the Service under either of the two preceding clauses, and we subsequently agree to reconnect the Service, then:
   a) any Set Term will not be extended by the period for which the Service was suspended; and
   b) we may change the Billing Cycle. We will give you prior notice of your new Billing Cycle.

05.06 You will not need to pay an Early Cancellation Fee if we cancel the Agreement because:
   a) Foxtel suspends or cancels supply of the Service to us;
   b) Foxtel directs us to suspend or cancel supply of the Service to you;
   c) we receive notification of your death; or
   d) a Regulatory Event occurs.

05.07 If we suspend or cancel the Service for any reason, you won’t be able to receive any Third Party Service. You should contact your Third Party Service Provider to see how your contract with them might be affected.

What you pay if the Agreement is cancelled

05.08 If this Agreement is cancelled for any reason you must pay your Subscription Fees as well as any other fees or charges for which you are liable up to the date this Agreement is cancelled and you stop receiving the Service.

If this Agreement is cancelled during a Billing Cycle, the Subscription Fees will be reduced proportionately.

05.09 If this Agreement is cancelled before the end of the Set Term:
   a) by us under the headings ‘What happens if you don’t pay’, ‘When we can cancel this Agreement’ or ‘General’; or
   b) by you (including under the heading ‘Transferring the Service to another Address’, but not because of a material breach of this Agreement by us), and you don’t acquire a service equivalent to the Service from Foxtel within four weeks, you’ll also need to pay the Early Cancellation Fee unless this Agreement says otherwise.

Changing between the Standard Service, the Foxtel SD Service and the Foxtel HD Service

05.10 The length of your Set Term won’t change if you upgrade or downgrade between the Standard Service, the Foxtel SD Service or the Foxtel HD Service as described in clause 03.06. If you don’t keep the Service until the end of the Set Term, you’ll need to pay an Early Cancellation Fee.

06 Liability

Nothing in this Agreement removes or limits any rights that you have, for example, that the Service is provided with due care and skill, are fit for the purpose supplied and that any goods supplied are of acceptable quality.

Your liability to us

06.01 Subject to the principles applied by the courts, you are liable to us, our related Bodies Corporate and Suppliers in relation to loss, cost, expense, damage or other liability arising out of:
   a) your breach of contract or negligence;
   b) any claim or demand against us arising from or connected with our installation, supply, maintenance, repair or removal of the Service or the Equipment or Infrastructure to, you or your use of any item; or
   c) your use or the provision of a Third Party Service.

06.02 You are not liable for any loss to the extent that it is caused by us, Foxtel, Telstra, Foxtel Management Pty Limited or our other Suppliers through wilful default, negligence or breach of this Agreement or any law.

Our liability to you

06.03 We will provide the Service to you in accordance with this Agreement. However, given the nature of telecommunications systems (including the Service’s reliance on systems not owned or controlled by us), we can’t promise that the Service will be continuous or fault free.
06.04 Subject to the following clause, the contract terms that apply to the supply of this Service are those that are expressly set out in this Agreement and those implied by consumer protection laws that are unable to be excluded. No other terms apply.

06.05 We accept our liability to you (whether direct or vicarious) for breach of contract or negligence under the principles applied by the courts and for breach of any non-excludable rights under consumer protection laws.

06.06 If we are responsible to you then you agree that we, Telstra, our Suppliers, agents, contractors and employees are not responsible (to the maximum extent permitted by law) for any indirect or consequential loss arising out of or in connection with:
   a) the supply of the Service or the Equipment; or
   b) the relationship established by this Agreement.

06.07 Subject to clause 7.05 and unless a law which cannot be excluded or this Agreement says otherwise, we, Telstra, our Suppliers, agents, contractors and employees will not be responsible to you or any other person in connection with:
   a) your operation and use of the Equipment, Infrastructure or Broadband Connection;
   b) any damage to your Address or your own equipment;
   c) any misuse or failure of the Service or the Foxtel Guide caused by you or anyone else at your Address;
   d) any loss of programming recorded to the Foxtel PDR;
   e) any loss you suffer if you do not receive a Third Party Service or a Retransmitted Service; or
   f) any loss you or any other person suffer as a result of:
      i) the installation of the Equipment or Infrastructure by you or on your behalf;
      ii) you or anyone at your Address viewing or using the Service, the Foxtel Guide or any Retransmitted Service;
   iii) any misuse or unauthorised use of the PIN;
   iv) any other cause where the cause is outside our reasonable control;
   v) our use of the Broadband Connection.

06.08 The Equipment is manufactured by a third party and is subject to statutory guarantees and other rights under consumer protection laws that cannot be excluded. Remedies are available for a breach of such guarantees or rights, including repairs or replacements.

You will not be required to pay the monthly spend for your service while the Equipment is being repaired or replaced as a result of a breach of statutory guarantees or rights. Except for these non-excludable rights, and except as caused by our breach of contract or negligence, we are not liable for any loss that arises from a failure of or fault in the Equipment (such as the circumstance contemplated in paragraph 03.11(b)(vi)). However this doesn’t change our obligations to repair, maintain or replace the Equipment as set out in the Installation Terms.

07 Privacy Statement (including credit reporting policy)

This statement is the privacy policy of Telstra Corporation Limited and its wholly owned Australian subsidiaries. It sets out how we manage your personal information and other information. Before we get into the detail, we need to define a few terms. This bit can get a bit technical, so please bear with us:

Your Information: When we refer to “Your Information”, we are referring to both your personal information, as defined under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), and any customer information, protected by Part 13 of the Telecommunications Act 1997 (Cth).

Credit Reporting Policy: This sets out how we manage your ‘credit information’ and ‘credit eligibility information’ where this is relevant to you, and is our credit reporting policy for the purposes of Part IIIA of the Privacy Act.
The kinds of information we collect and hold
Depending on the particular circumstances, we may collect and hold a range of different information about you. This can include your name, date of birth, contact details (including address, email address, phone number or mobile telephone number), occupation, driver’s licence number, Telstra PIN, username or password, financial information (such as credit card or bank account numbers) and information about how you use our products and services.

This is not an exhaustive list. For example, we may sometimes need to collect additional information as part of a user authentication process, such as when you want to speak to one of our customer service personnel who need to access your account. We may also need to collect additional information from you, such as limited health information to provide priority assistance services or a Centrelink customer reference number to provide you with a pensioner discount.

You might also need to provide personal information about other individuals to us (eg about your authorised representatives). If so, we rely on you to inform those individuals that you are providing their personal information to us and to advise them about this statement.

How we collect Your Information
We may collect Your Information in a number of ways, including:
• directly from you (such as where you provide information to us when you visit one of our stores or websites, complete an application form or agreement for one of our services, or contact us with a query or request)
• from third parties such as our related entities, business or commercial partners, credit reporting bodies (for more details see our Credit Reporting Policy below), wholesale or other customers, or your representatives
• from publicly available sources of information
• from our records of how you use your Telstra products or services
• when legally authorised or required to do so, for example, when we need to undertake identity checks for pre-paid public mobile telecommunications services under the Telecommunications (Service Provider – Identity Checks for Prepaid Mobile Carriage Services) Determination 2013
• from the third parties we list in the section of this Statement with the heading “When we disclose Your Information”
• as required under the data retention provisions of the Telecommunications (Interception and Access) Act 1979 (Cth).

If you choose not to provide certain information about you, we may not be able to provide you with the products or services you require, or the level of service on which we pride ourselves.

We may also collect information from you online. For more information, please go to the “online privacy” section of our website.

How we hold Your Information
We may store Your Information in hard copy or electronic format, in storage facilities that we own and operate ourselves, or that are owned and operated by our service providers. We take the privacy and security of your information seriously and we are committed to maintaining the security of your information under our control. We use a combination of technical solutions, security controls and internal processes to help us protect your information and our network from unauthorised access and disclosure. For more information about your data security visit telstra.com.au/privacy/data-security

While we take these steps to maintain the security of Your Information, you should be aware of the many information security risks that exist today and take appropriate care to help safeguard Your Information. We encourage you to read some of our helpful tips and hints on digital safety on our website.

How we use Your Information
We may use Your Information for a range of different purposes, including:
• to provide products and services to you, to provide you with information about those products and services, to assist you with enquiries or purchases, to enhance your experience of our products and services, and to provide you with better customer service
• to administer and manage the products and services we provide to you, to charge and bill you for them, and to collect any amounts you may owe us
• to gain an understanding of your information and communication needs, to improve or develop our products and services, or to perform research and analysis
• to monitor network use, quality and performance, and to operate, maintain, develop, test and upgrade our systems and infrastructure
• to verify your identity or to conduct appropriate checks for credit-worthiness and for fraud checking
• as authorised or required by law (including under the Telecommunications Act 1997 (Cth) and the Telecommunications (Interception and Access) Act 1979 (Cth))
• to produce and distribute an alphabetical public number directory (known as the White Pages) in compliance with our Carrier Licence Conditions
• as required by or in accordance with any industry code or industry standard registered under the Telecommunications Act 1997 (Cth).

How we use Your Information for Direct Marketing
We may also use your information so that we, our related entities, dealers and other business or commercial partners can promote and market products, services and special offers that we think will be of interest to you (which may include products, services and offers provided by a third party). This marketing may be carried out in a variety of ways (including by email, SMS/MMS, or social media or by customising online content and displaying advertising on websites) and may continue after you cease acquiring any products or services from us until you opt-out by calling 1800 039 059.

When we disclose Your Information
We may disclose Your Information to third parties who provide services to us, including organisations and contractors that assist us with the purposes for which we use Your Information. These services include:
• customer enquiries and support services
• installation, maintenance and repair services
• mailing operations, billing and debt-recovery functions
• information technology and network services
• market research, marketing, telemarketing and door-knocking services.

We may also disclose Your Information:
• to your authorised representatives or advisers, or when you ask us to do so
• to credit-reporting bodies (for more details see our Credit Reporting Policy below) and fraud-checking agencies, and to credit providers for credit related purposes such as credit-worthiness, credit rating, default listing, credit provision and financing
• our dealers, our related entities or our business or commercial partners
• to other telecommunication and information service providers or to our wholesale and other customers from or through whom you may acquire products or services (for example, we may need to disclose Your Information for billing purposes)
• to the manager of the Integrated Public Number Database, and other organisations as required or authorised by law
• to the Government’s National Document Verification Service, to verify the validity of any Government issued documentation you provide as proof of identity ie: Drivers Licence, Medicare, Passport, etc
• to law enforcement and national security agencies, and other government and regulatory authorities as required or authorised by law
• to third parties who assist us to manage or develop our business and corporate strategies and functions, including our corporate risk or funding functions
• for the purposes of facilitating or implementing a transfer/sale of all or part of our assets or business
• to our contractor, Sensis, to enable us to meet our Carrier Licence Conditions to produce and distribute an alphabetical public number directory (known as the White Pages). Note, if you have requested an unlisted number, your details won’t be published in the White Pages
• to third parties as required by or in accordance with any industry code or industry standard registered under the Telecommunication Act 1997 (Cth).
In some cases, the organisations to who we may disclose Your Information may be based outside Australia. For example, we may disclose Your Information to our service providers in Canada, China, Hong Kong, countries within the European Union, India, Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, Philippines, Singapore, Russia, South Africa, South Korea, Sri Lanka and the United States of America.

How to access or correct your personal information or make a privacy complaint
If you wish to access any of your personal information that we hold or would like to correct any errors in that information, please contact us using the contact details set out in the “How to Contact Us” section of this Statement, so that we can consider and respond to your request. We may apply an administrative charge for providing access to your personal information in response to a request.

You may also use these contact details to notify us of any privacy complaint you have against us, including if you think that we have failed to comply with the Australian Privacy Principles (APP) or any binding APP code that has been registered under the Privacy Act. We are committed to acknowledging your complaint in a prompt manner and will give you an estimated timeframe for when we will respond to your complaint.

While we hope that we will be able to resolve any complaints you may have without needing to involve third parties, you may also be able to lodge a complaint with a relevant regulator such as the Australian Information Commissioner (oaic.gov.au) or the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman (tio.com.au).

About this Statement
This Statement has been issued by Telstra Corporation Limited, and its wholly owned Australian subsidiaries, effective as at 31 July 2016. From time to time, we may need to change this Statement. If we do so, we will post the updated version on our website (telstra.com.au/privacy) and it will apply to all of Your Information held by us at the time.

How to Contact Us
If you have any questions in relation to this Statement or our management of your information, please let us know by contacting us on 1800 039 059 or writing to us at privacy@online.telstra.com.au

If you’d like this statement on CD or in Braille please call Telstra’s Disability Enquiry Hotline on 1800 068 424 (office hours are Monday-Friday 8 am-5 pm EST) for assistance. You can also obtain a pdf copy of this statement on our website telstra.com.au/privacy/privacy-statement

Credit Reporting Policy
This credit reporting policy relates to Telstra and to our related entities that are deemed to be credit providers or affected information recipients for the purposes of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

We may provide credit as contemplated in the Privacy Act to our customers in connection with our products and services (for example, post-paid accounts) and, as a result, we may collect credit information and credit eligibility information about you as referred to in the Privacy Act. Our Credit Reporting Policy sets out how we manage that information.

How we collect and hold credit information and credit eligibility information about you
Credit information relates primarily to your credit related dealings with us and covers various types of information that can be collected by Credit Reporting Bodies (CRBs) that report on consumer credit worthiness.

Credit information includes:
• identification information
• basic information about your credit account (for example when it was opened)
• details about information requests we make about you to CRBs
• information about certain overdue payments, default listings and about serious credit infringements and information about payments or subsequent arrangements in relation to either of these
• various publicly available information like bankruptcy and credit-related court judgements.
We may collect credit information about you in any of the circumstances relating to other personal information described in our Privacy Statement under How we collect your information. Credit eligibility information is information equivalent to the kinds listed above that we generally collect from CRBs.

This information relates primarily to your dealings with other credit providers (for example, banks, other financial institutions, or other organisations that may provide you with credit in connection with their products or services). It may also include certain credit worthiness information that we derive from the data that we receive from a CRB. Sometimes we may also collect credit eligibility information about you from other credit providers.

We store and safeguard your credit information and credit eligibility information in the ways described in our Privacy Statement under How we hold your information.

How we use and when we disclose your credit information and credit eligibility information

We may disclose your credit information to CRBs. Those CRBs may then include that information in credit reporting information that they provide to other credit providers to assist them to assess your credit worthiness.

We may also use and disclose your credit information for other purposes and in other circumstances as described in our Privacy Statement under How we use your information and When we disclose your information, when permitted to do so by the Privacy Act.

Our use and disclosure of credit eligibility information is regulated by Part IIIA of the Privacy Act and the Credit Reporting Privacy Code. We will only use or disclose such information for purposes permitted by these laws, such as:

- processing credit-related applications and managing credit that we provide
- assisting you to avoid defaults
- collecting amounts you may owe us in relation to such credit and dealing with serious credit infringements
- assigning our debts
- participating in the credit reporting system

- dealing with complaints or regulatory matters relating to credit or credit reporting
- when required or authorised by another law.

In some cases, the people to whom we may disclose your credit information or credit eligibility information may be based outside Australia – for more information please see the details in our Privacy Statement under How we disclose your information.

How to access or correct your credit information or credit eligibility information

If you wish to access or correct errors in any of your credit information or credit eligibility information that we hold, please contact us using the contact details in the How to contact us section in our Privacy Statement.

We may apply an administrative charge for providing access to your credit eligibility information, depending on the request.

How to make a complaint regarding our compliance with Part IIIA of the Privacy Act and these Credit Reporting Terms

If you think that we have not complied with Part IIIA of the Privacy Act or with the Credit Reporting Privacy Code (which regulates credit reporting) you can make a complaint by using the contact details in the How to contact us section of our Privacy Statement.

We will acknowledge your complaint in writing as soon as practicable within 7 days. We will aim to investigate and resolve your complaint within 30 days of receiving it. If we need more time, we will notify you about the reasons for the delay and ask for your agreement to extend this 30 day period (if you do not agree, we may not be able to resolve your complaint).

We may need to consult with a CRB or another credit provider to investigate your complaint. While we hope that we will be able to resolve any complaint without needing to involve third parties, if you are not satisfied with the outcome of your complaint you can access our external dispute resolution scheme, the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman (tio.com.au), or make a complaint to the Australian Information Commissioner (oaic.gov.au).
08 Changes to this Agreement

08.01 From time to time, we may change this Agreement, according to the terms set out under this heading. These terms do not apply to changes to the Service covered under the heading ‘When we may change the Service’, or to changes to our contact details.

08.02 We will give you 30 days prior written notice of any change, unless:
   a) we need to make the change immediately in order to act legally, or for urgent operational or technical reasons; or
   b) the change is a decrease in price. (We may decrease any of our prices at any time without giving you notice); or
   c) the change relates to the prices for General Charges. We'll still let you know of any such price change before you incur a General Charge (for example, when you contact us for a service call or request additional or replacement Equipment).

08.03 If we change this Agreement and you are materially disadvantaged by the change, you can cancel this Agreement by notifying us within 30 days of receiving notice of the change. You will not be required to pay an Early Cancellation Fee.

08.04 However, the preceding clause does not apply to any of the following changes:
   a) increases in any On Demand Charge or Main Event Charge; or
   b) increases in the Subscription Fees which reflect increases in the CPI during the Set Term.

08.05 If you haven't notified us of your cancellation of this Agreement within 30 days of receiving notice of a change under clauses 03.09 or 03.10, we'll assume you have accepted that change.

09 Some other important terms

This section tells you about the other terms which apply to this Agreement.

Reading the Agreement

09.01 Headings and any explanatory text in this Agreement are for convenience only and do not affect how this Agreement is interpreted.

In this Agreement:
   a) the singular includes the plural, and the plural includes the singular;
   b) if a word or phrase is defined, its other grammatical forms have a corresponding meaning;
   c) a reference to us includes our successors, permitted substitutes and permitted assigns (and, where applicable, our legal personal representatives);
   d) a reference to law or to a provision of a law includes a change to it or a reenactment of it, a provision substituted for it and a regulation or statutory instrument issued under it; and
   e) mentioning anything after ‘includes’, ‘including’, ‘for example’ or similar expressions, does not limit what else might be included.

Notices

09.02 You can give us notice under this Agreement or contact us by telephoning us on 13 2200. We can give you notices by sending notices to your Address or including the relevant information in the Foxtel Magazine, letter or by electronic mail.

Circumstances we can’t control

09.03 If we can’t perform our obligations under this Agreement as a result of an event or cause beyond our reasonable control (eg an act of God, war, terrorism or disruption to electricity):
   a) we will tell you, unless the circumstances prevent us from doing so;
   b) your Subscription Fees for the affected service will be reduced in proportion to the number of days of the month on which we couldn’t perform our obligations; and
c) you can cancel this Agreement without paying an Early Cancellation Fee if the event or cause continues for 5 days or more.

Transfer of this Agreement

09.04 You can assign this Agreement to someone else if we consent.

09.05 You agree that at any time, we may assign the rights under, and novate the benefits and obligations of, this Agreement to Telstra and that Telstra may assume our liabilities and obligations under this Agreement.

We will notify you if this occurs (‘Notice Date’). We and you agree, and Telstra acknowledges, that with effect from the Notice Date this Agreement will be cancelled and a new agreement will be created on the same terms as this Agreement except that:

a) Telstra will replace us in any capacity as if they were an original party to this Agreement; and

b) Telstra has no obligations or liability under this Agreement before the Notice Date.

09.06 Telstra will be bound by the new agreement as this Agreement relates to us, and will have all the rights and benefits conferred on us under this Agreement. Each reference in this Agreement to ‘we’, ‘us’ and ‘our’ will be read as a reference to Telstra.

09.07 You acknowledge that nothing in this section or any of the transactions contemplated by this section ‘Transfer of this Agreement’ constitutes a breach of any term of this Agreement.

09.08 In addition, you agree that we may assign our rights under this Agreement to any of Telstra’s Related Bodies Corporate.

Parties

09.09 Telstra is a party to this Agreement but only in relation to the sections headed ‘Transfer of this Agreement’ and ‘Liability’, where Telstra is specifically referred to.

To that extent only, we have entered into this Agreement on behalf of Telstra.

Foxtel and Foxtel Management Pty Limited are parties to this Agreement but only in relation to the section headed ‘Liability’ and ‘Retransmitted Services’, where they are specifically referred to. To that extent only, we have entered into this Agreement on behalf of Foxtel and Foxtel Management Pty Limited.

Our rights

09.10 In addition to our rights and powers under this Agreement, we can exercise all the other rights and powers we have under law.

09.11 If we do not do something when we are entitled to, that does not mean we are giving up that right and cannot do it later.

Authorised Persons

09.12 You acknowledge that we may engage other persons to perform some or all of our obligations or exercise some or all of our rights under or in connection with this Agreement.

Capacity

09.13 You promise that you are over 18.

09.14 If a person other than you signs a Work order, you warrant that that person is:
a) over the age of 18; and

b) authorised to sign the Work Order on your behalf.

After this Agreement ends

09.15 Any rights or obligations which either party has accrued under this Agreement will continue to exist when it is ended. In particular, any rights either party has under the ‘Liability’ section above and any obligation to pay Service Charges in respect of periods before the end of the Agreement will continue even after the Agreement is ended.

Illegality

09.16 Any provision of this Agreement which is illegal, void or unenforceable will be ineffective to the extent only of that illegality, voidness or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions.
Law
09.17 This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State or Territory in which your Address is located.

Severe weather conditions
09.18 The satellite Service may be affected by severe weather conditions. If you experience signal problems that you suspect may be caused by severe weather call Foxtel on 131 999.

10 Standard definitions
