

TELSTRA WIRELESS M2M 150MB SHARED DATA PLAN

INFORMATION ABOUT THE SERVICE

The Telstra Wireless Machine to Machine (M2M) service allows you to connect different pieces of equipment over Telstra's Next G[®], 3G and GPRS networks, feeding up-to-the minute data to your central business applications and sending instructions instantly back to your equipment. M2M solutions are now widely adopted and seen across many industries for uses like asset tracking, surveillance and monitoring, remote equipment management, patient health care and multimedia distribution.

You need a Telstra Wireless M2M service to take up this plan and an M2M approved device, which aren't included in your plan.

This plan is not available with Telstra Wireless M2M Control Centre services.
